EXPERTS DISAGREE RODDIE CASE IS REVERSED TODAY

Clause Creating Commerce Commission Chief Bone of Contention.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 13.—The old axiom that "Commerce is the Life-Blood of a Nation" could be amended to read—"and of its courts," according to attorneys of many years experience before the United States Supreme court.

Inquiry of a number of experts on constitutional law as to the section which has been productive of most litigation, brought the unanimous response: "Section 8, paragraph 3." This section, one of the shortest in the immortal document, declares that congress shall have the power to "regulate commerce with foreign nations and between the several states."

From that brief clause, however, has arisen all the rate cases, those involving public utilities, the Interstate Commerce Commission, child labor, Federal Employers' Liability Act, the lottery laws, the White Slave Act and, more recently the numerous prohibition statutes preceding the amendment itself.

Chief Justice Marshall asserted in a judicial opinion that "commerce" must be interpreted to mean "intercourse" and, lawyers say his wide interpretation was the progenitor of the whole family of legal battles turning upon the commerce section.

"Washington showed his foresightedness immediately after the Revolutionary War," said one constitutional law expert recently, "and placed his finger on the most glaring weakness of the Articles of Confederation, when he called the 'Annapolis Convention' to discuss commerce between Maryland, Virginia and Delaware." This convention, forerunner of that held in Philadelphia shortly afterward, agreed that no restriction of any sort should be placed on the commerce of the three states.

Realizing that the agreement was worthless unless supported by the adjoining states, Washington and his conferees determined, it is said, to make the question of commerce a feature of the Philadelphia meeting.

It is the contention of some authorities that the section written into the constitution was the outcome of a deliberate effort to take away all regulatory powers over commerce from the states. Others maintain that the school of thought headed by Hamilton and Marshall was decisively beaten in this endeavor as in several others fostered to establish a strong central government and that congressional regulation of commerce was intended to cover only the movements of goods over the state lines without hindrance of tolls and tariffs.

Be that as it may, under recent decisions of the supreme court, "commerce" has been interpreted to cover NOT only the movement of goods, but of men and women—as in the White Slave Act. In the Peterson case, the court held that a man handling bolts intended for use in a bridge over which Washington-New York trains passed, must be considered to be "engaged in interstate commerce."

Within the last few weeks, no less than a dozen cases involving in some way the commerce section, have been docketed in the supreme court. The Wisconsin and New York rate cases will determine whether the Interstate Commerce Commission has the right to fix purely intra-state railroad rates. A case from Texas will decide whether the commission can authorize the abandonment of a railroad's lines. Other suits turn upon obscure points in the Federal Employers' Liability Act.

GENERAL RAIN IN WEST PART OF STATE IS HELPFUL

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, May 14.—A general rain has fallen over Oklahoma in the last 24 hours with the exception of the eastern portion of the state, which is expected to receive moisture today. It was announced at the weather bureau here today. The precipitation was heaviest in the western portion, Manning rainfall 1.04 inches.

The rainfall will be of great benefit to wheat and other crops according to crop authorities, especially in the west half of the state where it was most needed.

Habeas Corpus Petition Denied Prisoner Yesterday

Arthur High, who was recently arrested by officers on an old charge of vagrancy, was denied release from jail yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus in the district court.

It is said that High pleaded guilty in 1918 to a charge of vagrancy and made a stay bond which was forfeited. Commitment was issued for him in 1919 but the district judge, wishing to give him a chance, released him temporarily without hearing a habeas corpus petition.

He was arrested recently and placed in jail on the old charge and Judge Bolen yesterday held that his incarceration was legal in every way and that the prisoner could expect no more mercy from the court.

McClintock's Bond Set at $10,000 by Judge Bolen, Friday

Bond was set by Judge Bolen yesterday at $10,000 for Frank McClintock of Roff, who was bound over for trial in district court on a charge of murder by Justice H. J. Brown, Thursday. It is said that the bond will be made for McClintock today.

Attorney Arden L. Bullock presented a habeas corpus petition to the district judge, praying the defendant's release on bond and, after a brief review of the case, Judge Bolen announced that McClintock would be allowed to make bond for $10,000.

McClintock is charged with the murder of George Martin, who died in the hospital here of bullet wounds May 3, said to have been inflicted by McClintock the previous night.

At the preliminary trial two witnesses testified that they saw McClintock shoot Martin, under circumstances which the defendant claims to have been self defense.

LAWTON—Lawton business men will leave here Thursday on a boost trip to Mack's Corner, Empire City, Duncan, Marlow, Sterling, Elgin, Cyril, Cement and Apache.

The annual Gridiron banquet will be held May 14. An elaborate entertainment program has been arranged for the "Fourth Estates," including an outing trip to Medicine Park.

New Type of Criminal More Daring Criminologists Form a New Association

(By the Associated Press)
PITTSBURG, Pa., May 14.—A new and distinct type of criminal is supplanting the old class of outlaws, detectives and criminologists representing 350 agencies were told here recently when plans were perfected to form the International Secret Service Association.

This new class, while far more bold and daring, lacks the ingenuity of the old-time criminal, it is said. Where criminals in the past indulged in counterfeiting, forgery and swindling games that required patience to execute, the newer and younger generation, ranging in age from 17 to 24, specialize in bank and mail robberies, train holdups, payroll thefts and other daring crimes, speakers declared.

EL RENO, May 14.—Ponca City was unanimously chosen for the meeting place next year of the Oklahoma Press Association in convention here today. After a spirited race Hugo supporters withdrew and Ponca City was chosen.

J. I. Newman of Frederick was chosen president for the new year; L. M. Meyers of McAlistair first vice president and E. S. Bronson of El Reno re-elected secretary-treasurer.

MUCH ACTIVITY IN NORMAL SCHOOL

Big Summer Term Expected; Graduating Exercises Next Week.

Next Saturday afternoon will see the ending of another school term in the East Central State Normal school located in this city. The spring term which has proven to be a good one for the school, will end at that time and preparations will begin for the summer term, which promises to be the largest in history.

The graduation exercises will be better than ever this year, a large class is to receive diplomas and the final records are better than those of the past. The baccalaureate sermon for the senior graduating class will be delivered by Bishop Theodore Payne Thurston of Oklahoma City Sunday morning in the Normal auditorium.

Graduating Exercises

The class graduation exercises will be held in the auditorium next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock and the class address will be delivered by Dr. Ira Hilton of Stillwater. There will be 35 graduates this year, 32 of whom will receive diplomas at this time. The remaining 43 will be awarded diplomas at the end of the summer term. This is one of the largest graduating classes in the history of the school.

In addition to the senior class proper, the senior-prep class, consisting of 16 pupils will also hold their exercises at this time. Diplomas will be given them at this time. These diplomas are equivalent to the regular high school diplomas. This is the first time in history that the Normal has awarded these diplomas.

Big Summer School

All indications point to one of the largest summer schools the Normal has ever had. The correspondence indicates that students from all parts of the state and from other states will be in attendance. It is estimated that the number to be enrolled will reach the 1000 mark and preparations are being made to care for this number.

The city has been canvassed and rooms for all who come have been secured. Students will be able to get board and room at reasonable rates and no trouble is anticipated in this department.

Extra Teachers

Several extra teachers will be here this summer to teach in the Normal in addition to the already large force. Every department will be represented and students will be able to secure courses in every line the school gives.

Prof. Newcomb of the Normal faculty has been delivering class addresses for the high schools at Mansville, Milburn and Mill Creek, this week. Dr. A. Linscheid left yesterday for Checotah where he delivered the class address for that school last night. Miss B. Alice Francisco will not teach at the school this summer as she has been secured by the state normal school at Pittsburg, Kansas. She is a former graduate of this school and it is quite a compliment to her to be asked to teach there this summer. Her place here will be filled by Miss Kelly for the summer.

Yesterday was senior day for the Normal seniors and they all went to Sulphur for a great picnic. However the rain made part of the day rather uncomfortable but all who went report a grand time. The seniors are busy completing the final work of the year.

France Opposed to War

PARIS, May 14.—France is unalterably opposed to any German military operations in Upper Silicia, declared Premier Briand today.

PARIS, May 14.—"Never, never could the French government consent to German troops entering Upper Silicia," the premier exclaimed to half a hundred foreign correspondents whom he received at the foreign office in consequence of Premier Lloyd George's speech yesterday in the house of commons.

The question of sending troops to quell the disturbance, it was said yesterday at the war department, had been referred to President Harding but Secretary Weeks declined to say today whether or not

"Lockout Strikes" of Miners In East Reaches Open War Stage.

(By the Associated Press)
WILLIAMSON, W. Va., May 14.—The battle in the mountains of Mingo county, West Virginia, and Pike county, Kentucky, along the river Tug, which has raged for several days, fierce as it has been, is merely a phase of a greater struggle in which this rich coal district is locked, the industrial struggle over the question of unionizing or keeping "open" the mines, and that great struggle is being waged with every known weapon.

Union miners, on "lockout strike," as the leaders describe it, are evicted from homes owned by the coal companies and are forced to settle near by on lease land in tenement colonies. No longer able to trade at the company's commissaries at the various mines, they subsist on rations shipped in by the international union. Deprived of funds as a result of being out of work, they draw benefits from the international union.

Precarious statements and charges are lodged by supporters of both factions. Threats and rumors of threats are discussed in virtually every neighborhood. Thousands who have followed the situation profess to regard it as the most serious that has arisen since the trouble began, not excepting the Matewan shooting on May 9, in which ten were slain.

The operators are firm in their determination to keep the field open at any cost. The United Mine Workers are equally determined in their insistence that the struggle must go on until their union is recognized. The question of wages and working conditions also enter into the disagreement, but these admittedly are minor questions.

David Cobb, international financial agent of the United Mine Workers, who is directing union activities in this district made public today the first statement he has issued since the industrial warfare flared up again.

"A high percentage of the men now out are Americans, natives of this district, and they do not propose to be driven from their homes. Any one who knows the mountainer's temperment knows that they won't be intimidated and that they will not allow their women and children to be made targets. I have been besieged with requests from men for money with which to buy arms and ammunition. These requests I have, of course, ignored and have counseled the men to moderation, but I know that many of them will go right ahead firing back when their homes or tent colonies, to which they have been reduced by eviction proceedings of the operators, are fired upon."

According to Mr. Robb there are about twenty five hundred men still on "lockout strikes" in the district most of whose places have been taken by nonunion workers from other parts of the country.

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 14.—Major General Read, commanding the 5th corps area was instructed today by secretary Weeks to send federal troops into Mingo county, West Virginia, if the general deemed the presence of troops there necessary to quell the border disturbances.

The number of troops to go was left to the discretion of General Read, but secretary Weeks' order was that all the soldiers necessary to restore order be moved.

General Read advised the war department yesterday that he was holding a force in readiness pending instructions from Washington and advises from a staff officer sent into Mingo county to investigate the situation.

The question of sending troops to quell the disturbance, it was said yesterday at the war department, had been referred to President Harding but secretary Weeks declined to say today whether or not

I AM MUSIC

Servant and master am I; servant of those dead, and master of those living. Through me spirits immortal speak their message that makes the world weep, and laugh, and wonder, and worship.

I tell the story of love, the story of hate, the story that saves and the story that damns. I am the incense upon which prayers float to Heaven. I am the smoke which palls over the field of battle where men lie dying on their lips.

I stand nearby. I call the wanderer home, and when the graves open the depths, I open the lips of lovers, and through me the dead whisper to the living.

One I serve as I serve all; and the king I make my slave as easily as I subject his slave. I speak through the birds of the air, the insects of the field, the crash of waters on rock-ribbed shores, the sighing of wind in the trees, and I am ever heard by the soul that knows me in the clatter of wheel on city streets.

I know no brother, yet all men are my brothers; I am the father of the best that is in me; I am of them, and they are the fathers of the best that is in them.

I am the instrument of God.

Mrs. SELCHERT'S DAUGHTER

Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Huron, Wis.—"My young daughter had been troubled for several months with backache and a bad feeling in her stomach. When she got to the table to eat she did not want anything, while before she was so hungry she could hardly wait for her dinner. The doctors gave her medicine but it did not help her. One day I was reading a little book of yours which was left on my porch and it reminded me that when I was a young girl I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So she went to the drug store and got a bottle and after the second one she could eat and has not had backache since. In all she took six bottles of it. She goes to school and on Saturdays helps with the housework. She is a normal, healthy girl now and we recommend your medicine. You have my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial for the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. FRANK SELCHERT, 150 Larabee St., Huron, Wis.

Mothers all over the country have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to be a most reliable remedy for such conditions.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Thedford's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the jaded liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

It's well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Italians Form Klu Klux Klan to Drive Reds From Country

Decorated Italian World war veteran exhorting the Fascisti to drive the Communists from Italian soil.

Italian patriots have organized the Fascisti, a Klu Klux Klan society, to fight the Bolsheviks in that country. The society has been drilling for some time in the villa Borgese, one of the hills near Rome. Cones of knotted wood are used as arms in the drilling. The photo shows one of Italy's much-decorated war heroes urging members of the Fascisti to rout the Communists.

Kelly, Babe Ruth's Rival, Has Different Style at Bat

George Kelly "following through" after slapping one over the fence and a closeup of George's grip on the bat.

The season's home run monarchs to date—Babe Ruth of the Yankees and George Kelly of the Giants—are distinctly opposite types of hitters. All they have in common is the ability to land with extraordinary power, the ability to drag a bat up to the plate and a great yearning to slam the ball to realms beyond.

Both get the leverage of height and a long reach, but in different ways. Ruth is a left handed slugger; Kelly hits from the other side of the platter. Kelly inclines more to left field hitting and Ruth to right field hitting.

Kelly Free Hitter.

Kelly is a free hitter than Ruth, in the sense that he will hit to all fields much oftener than Ruth. He makes some home runs to left, but it is seldom, indeed, that Ruth hits to left for a homer or otherwise. He jolts 'em to center-right often, however. Ruth is a free hitter than Kelly, in the sense that he will hit all kinds, high, low, slow, fast curves oftener than Kelly.

Kelly is a waist hitter, Ruth a long, powerful swinger with the arms and applied with such intuitive use of the principles of applying power that he gets the benefit of every ounce of his weight—more than any slugger the game has known he does this.

Kelly leans well forward and Ruth does not, and Kelly's feet are further apart. He has an awkward knee action, but has an advantage over Ruth in that he can wait until the ball is nearer before starting his swing. He doesn't bring the bat forward from as far back, but

(By the Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, O., May 12.—Responding to the slogan's "Don't just get educated—keep educated" Cornell University alumni will gather here tomorrow and Saturday in what is said to be the first national convention ever staged by alumni of a university away from the seat of the alma mater.

Tao-Ke Sze, minister from China to the United States and a graduate of Cornell in the class of 1901, will be one of the guests.

Other speakers include Prof Paul Shorey of the University of Chicago and Dean J. Parker Hall, dean of law at the same institution, both of whom are expected to participate in the discussions on "Cultural versus Materialistic Education—What is the American Ideal?" one of the questions that is interesting alumni of many colleges at this time. From Ithaca will come Acting President A. W. Smith and Romeyn Barry, graduate manager of Cornell athletics, and from Buffalo, Judge Cuthbert W. Pound and J. DuPratt White, the leader in Cornell's recent work in raising a $9,000,000 endowment.

Among the subjects on the program are "University Education and the Industrial Situation," "Consolidation of Cornell Alumni Organizations" and "Can Alumni Representation on the Board of Trustees be More Effective?"

The convention, though it expects to accomplish a great deal of serious business, has arranged for some fun sessions, too. The old grades are bringing the cadet band from Ithaca to lead them in the stent parade.

Alumni from New York, Brooklyn, Ithaca, Scranton, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Chicago Buffalo and Cincinnati will make the trip to Cleveland in special cars.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

The Qualities of a Champion

World's Championship form is the best guarantee of all round efficiency that the sporting world affords. That is the real significance of our great victory with the Paige "Daytona" 6-66 model on January 21st.

When this car won the world's stock chassis record by traveling at the rate of 102.8 miles per hour it proved itself, not merely a fast car, but a superlatively fine engineering achievement.

You can establish this fact for yourself by riding in any Paige 6-66. Then, at a mere snail's pace or with the throttle half open, you will sense the finely balanced construction and immense reserve power that is basic and fundamental.

We invite you to test the 6-66 and compare it with any other car—at any price—on the American market. If you once know that exclusive power plant you will know the Paige story as no words can tell it.

The NEW EDISON

Same Artist proving the RE-CREATION by Direct Comparison

Only the NEW EDISON sustains the Direct Comparison Test

This means that the New Edison is the only phonograph that gives you exactly what the artist or artists sing or play into the recording horn when making a RE-CREATION.

This means that no other phonograph or talking machine can give the life-like realism you have a right to expect for your money—the absolute realism that Mr. Edison spent three millions of his dollars to develop.

And finally, this means that, if you are interested in buying a phonograph, your good judgment should bring you to this store to ask us to prove the above claims. We shall welcome your visit.

GOD'S REQUIREMENTS.—He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?—MICAH 6:8.

LAWYERS AS PUBLIC OFFICIALS

In an opinion handed down in a disbarment proceeding against a Kansas lawyer, the Supreme Court of that State, holds that members of the legal profession are public officials in that they owe a duty to the public as well as to the clients they are engaged to represent, and, that those indulging in sharp practice for the benefit of clients are, unfit to practice their dignified profession further before the courts of the land. The "shyster" no doubt views the decision with grave alarm, while the ethical, honorable lawyer, comprising the great majority of those in the profession, will hail the decision with delight.

Every man, summoned before a court to answer to a charge has the right to be represented by counsel, but this does not give counsel a right to secure his client's acquittal by indulging in chicanery, when the client is guilty as charged and there is no justification for his act.

The public, has a right to legal representation, and this representation is had in our elected prosecuting attorneys.

This does not give the prosecuting attorney the right to use every means at hand to convict every man under indictment, regardless of his guilt or innocence, for the prosecuting attorney, too, is elected to see that justice is done.

In all business, occupations and professions we find the "shyster," the irregular, unscrupulous fellow whose selfishness admits of no conscience, whose will to win shuts out all thoughts of right or wrong.

There was a day when success was spelled, "Win"—But, today we spell it "Win Honestly."

A REVIVAL OF SIMPLICITY

The modern young girl did not deserve all the unkind flings that were aimed in her direction. She had a little fun with extreme dress for a while, to be sure, but she is rounding to nicely and coming out strong for sensible clothes.

In one high school, to stimulate interest in suitable dress the girls themselves inaugurated a "simplicity week," with gingham gowns, middy blouses and skirts of modest length as its principle feature. They enjoyed it so much they are observing a series of such weeks, and every day two girls are chosen and exhibited to their schoolmates as having made the best combination of simplicity, good taste and attractive appearance. Such rivalry is a wholesome offset to the competition in extravagant dress of which some mothers complained a while ago.

It has been stated in no uncertain language that frivolous mothers set the example which led the daughters aside from appropriate dress. Let all such mothers mark and inwardly digest the reform now taking place among the younger generation and bear testimony in their own improved and regulated appearance that the lesson has gone home. No mother can afford to look like a paper lace valentine when daughters set an example of more practical artistry.

THE DIFFERENCE

Sixty-five policemen have been shot to death in American cities during the last 12 months, a new record for the American people, the most lawless people in the world.

These murders occurred in the larger cities, sometimes considered the fine fruits of our democratic civilization.

At the same moment the whole of Switzerland is aghast. Some bandits held up a bank cashier in broad daylight and stole the money. Nothing like it had happened in Switzerland for a hundred years.

The difference between America and Europe appears to be that we kill folks all the time and Europe only part of the time—when there's a war. There is less excuse for murder on the American plan.

U. S. Steel corporation, 20 years old, has $523,000,000 in cash, bank deposits and negotiable securities. Still, that's only $5 for every American.

Einstein says that all space is relative, and in some families it seems as if the relatives took up all the space.

If treatment by suggestion would cure the wounds of war, Germany would be the greatest of modern healers.

Enid Events: What this country needs is more spades and hoes and fewer can openers.

Indian Citizen-Democrat: President Harding's order relative to filling vacancies in the positions of postmaster will eliminate some of the pie hungry patriots who had indicated their willingness to serve in those places. The idea of taking an examination will not appeal to some of them.

St. Joseph News-Press: Formerly wives were supposed to use the rolling pin as a weapon on their husbands. But in these days of bake-shop and delicatessen stores, a lot of the women either don't own a rolling pin or they couldn't find it in case of emergency.

Lawton Constitution: Men drink up and smoke up and gamble up their extra brain power, or expend it in other unconstructive ways, almost as much as they use it constructively. Home-brewing is merely the latest manifestation. They might take to gardening or scientific baking, or industrial chemistry, or home-weaving or furniture-making, or the study of mathematics and astronomy, if only a paternal government would prohibit such occupations.

FILM SMILES —and so forth By Hi Speed

BATHING SUITS PROVE THAT FIGURES DONT LIE.

HAVING fixed $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 per cent as the legal kick for anything stronger than coffee, Congress is now agitating 3 per cent. aliens and 2½-cent coins. Figuring such percentages should be easy for film censors who have become quick at fractions through measuring the length of photoplay kisses, bathing suits and skirts.

"My press agent never revises anything he writes about me," says Owen Moore, the Selznick star. His motto is: "Leave it as it lies."

"What Do Men Want?" asks a film title—and the whole world knows it's prohibited.

"Up the Road with Sallie" is to star Constance Talmadge in films during June—the month when life in the country is pleasantest.

"The House of Whispers" sounds reasonable enough as describing the average movie surroundings.

"Love, Honor and Obey" is among the silent dramas prevailing, at least to some extent, in "real" life.

Sometimes the movies exaggerate. Selznick News pictures a weird wedding ceremony at which two goats were sacrificed.

Enough German-made films are coming into the United States to long outlast the final quibbles of the ultimate peace negotiations.

Eugene O'Brien has been "The Perfect Lover" and Norma Talmadge "The Perfect Woman" in photoplays. Their perfections will soon be joined in "Ghosts of Yesterday."

MUTINEERS FROM TEXAS PRISON ALL BEING CAPTURED

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., May 14.—Capture of six men considered the ring leaders of the Huntsville mutiny, was effected early today by three guards from the penitentiary. The party was captured at 5 o'clock by the guards about 12 miles west of Huntsville. The six men are known to be "bad men."

They were armed with two shot-guns and four revolvers. The guards ran them down with blood hounds. When the guards opened fire all six surrendered without a fight.

With the surrender of Ernest N. Kelly, serving a double life sentence, to Captain J. A. Harrington Friday afternoon, and the capture of the other six, prison authorities think that the backbone of the mutiny has been broken and that the others at large will be captured soon.

The New Drummond Drug Store to Open Formally on Monday

The formal opening of the new Drummond drug store at 116 East Main will take place next Monday afternoon from four until ten-thirty. The fixtures for the new store are practically complete and in place, and will have received the finishing touches before the opening takes place.

While the new store looks complete in every particular, much more stock will be added from time to time, and the original orders are by no means complete according to a statement of the proprietors.

At the formal opening of the new store Monday there will be music, favors suitable to the occasion will be distributed, and the management is anxious that every man, woman and child in the city, who can possibly do so, make it a point to step into the store sometime during the afternoon or evening and avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing one of the neatest and best appointed pharmacies in this part of the state.

Mr. Drummond's fixtures are all new from one end of the store to the other, are of the very latest design and are so made and erected as to show the stock to the very best advantage and at the same time make ample room for patrons in large numbers.

Mr. Drummond has a most excellent location which, with complete new stock and superb fixtures, assures him of a liberal part of the drug patronage of Ada and Pontotoc county. Not only that but the proprietor of the new store is a hale fellow well met, and you can't help but like him on first introduction.

Rollow Hardware Company.

This Hardware store is owned by W. C. Rollow, W. H. Rollow, V. E. Rollow and R. C. Jeter and is one of the largest and oldest in the entire county, having been in business in Ada since 1901. W. H. Rollow and Mr. Jeter are the active managers in the store. These men are probably more generally known over the surrounding country than any other merchants in the city, and many of their best customers are those that have traded with them for years.

As said before this is one of the largest hardware stores in the city, and the clean well selected stock, covers the general hardware line most completely. The managers make a study of the wants of the people who patronize this establishment, and keep the entire stock up to the demands of the public. This large stock of general hardware and farm implements represents as large a variety of well known merchants as any other hardware store in this county.

This enterprising establishment employs six salespeople including the two managers who superintend all departments and personally direct the sales. A more courteous crew of clerks are rarely ever met and prompt and efficient service is maintained in all departments.

This company's store is located at 103 West Main, phone 93, and the large salesroom is brimful of hardware bargains. The company owns a large warehouse, where a large stock of farm implements, such as: wagons, engines and hay presses are stored.

The company owns the building in which the store is located is 50 feet by 140 feet. They carry a stock in the neighborhood of $60,000.

LOOK ON OWEN AS GOOD PICK

Political Wiseacres Consider Him as Proper Man For Governor.

By Eugene M. Kerr.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 4.—As a rule during a legislative session the air is full of political bubbles. Aspiring candidates send up little balloons to attract attention and their friends begin to talk about them as possibilities for this or that office. There has been a marked absence of this sort of thing during this session. Some people think that choosing this and that fellow for a state office is little politics, but this legislature has been engaged in still smaller politics to the exclusion of about everything else.

At the beginning of the session there was considerable discussion in the lobbies relative to the possible candidacy of J. A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture, Arthur Leecraft, state treasurer, Frank Carter, state auditor, and Prince Freeling, attorney general, as possible candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination next year. This talk has entirely subsided. I rarely ever hear anyone say that there is any possibility of nominating any of these men.

It seems to be the fixed opinion of not only the members of the legislature but of the prominent democrats who drop in here from all parts of the state, that no man now holding office in the statehouse can hope to successfully run the gauntlet in next year's primary. This does not mean that these men are not popular or that they have been derelict in their duty, but it means that the temper of the folks is such that they are demanding an entire new deal.

Discussion as to possible candidates for governor have narrowed down to Judge Thos. H. Owen, ex-chief of the supreme court and now a practicing attorney in Oklahoma City; Judge Robert Rainey, also an ex-chief justice and a resident of Oklahoma City; Sam Morley, prominent banker of McAlester; Ex-Senator Elmer Thomas of Lawton, and occasionally the name of Judge Leahy of Pawhuska.

Judge Leahy and Sam Morley are two splendid business men, very popular in their own sections of the state but little known outside of their communities. Morley is much better known than Leahy. Neither probably could make a successful primary campaign. Senator Thomas, of Lawton, has announced definitely and positively that he is a candidate for congress in the sixth district, and will not be a candidate for governor, so that the discussion has narrowed down to a point where most people are saying that if Judge Owen could only be prevailed upon to run that would solve the difficulties of the democratic party. Thus far, however, Judge Owen has steadfastly refused to even consider the matter of being a candidate.

There is great curiosity around the state capitol as to the amount of money the house investigating committee has spent during this session. The committee had an absolute free range as to the amount of money they might spend, and it is said that economy has not been the watchword. Detectives, attorneys and high priced accountants have been gathered in flocks about the committee and it is the general opinion that their services come high. Much of the work of these employees could have been entirely dispensed with by simply calling upon the departments for reports on the matters under investigation.

Only one constitutional amendment will be submitted to the people by the legislature if present plans go through. This is the amendment offered by Senator Holloway and adopted by both houses which would provide for the people amending Section A of Article 10 of the constitution so as to increase a possible ad valorem tax levy by adding an extra ten mills.

The recent report of the school departments showing the school census of the several counties of the state, shows rather remarkable condition. The last federal census gave Oklahoma City ninety thousand population, and it gave Oklahoma county 120,000 population and Muskogee county 60,000 population. Upon this basis it would be natural to suppose that Oklahoma county would have twice the number of children of school age that Muskogee county has, yet the school census showed 20,000 school children in Muskogee county and 27,000 school children in Oklahoma county. There is something wrong with either the federal census or the school census. Oklahoma City with three times the population of the city of Muskogee has less than twice the number of school children.

Victor Harlow, in Harlow's Weekly, recently started discussion as to what training a candidate for governor should have. Experience has shown that regardless of a man's business training, unless he has had experience in political and business affairs, he almost always makes a hopeless failure as an executive officer. This is the only one of the civilized nations where the people ever seriously consider putting a man in a high executive position who has never had training in political affairs.

Gov. Haskell and Gov. Williams were both splendid business men, but in addition to that both Haskell and Williams were thoroughly learned in the school of political af-

GERMANY TEACHES MARRIAGEABLE DAUGHTERS DOMESTICS

Class of girls in the Berlin school learning care of young baby with life-sized doll.

Germany's heavy losses during the war have made it imperative that the mortality rate be reduced to the minimum while the country is getting back to normal. One more of the German authorities along this line is the construction of a school in Berlin where girls of marriageable age are taught domestics, including the proper care of infants, clothes making and home methods of curing illnesses. Whenever possible live babies are used by the classes for demonstrations of the proper care of infants. A doll is being used in the picture.

fairs. Each was a great success. Governor Cruse was a high class business man and yet as a governor even his friends would probably admit that he was more or less a failure. Governor Robertson had considerable political experience, but less business experience, and he has been in a peck of trouble since the first week he occupied the governor's chair.

Before Federal Grand Jury. Sheriff Duncan went to Muskogee yesterday, to appear before the federal grand jury, which convened there April 4. He is expected back today.

The regular term of the federal district court will be held at Tulsa and will convene April 11. Judge Colin Neblett of Santa Fe, N. M., will preside as the trial judge, having been assigned to duty in the eastern district of Oklahoma for the term.

The county commissioners convened the regular monthly meeting, yesterday, with all of the members present. During the first day, and up to the time the News goes to press today, only the regular routine business attended to at each monthly meeting, has been brought to the attention of the commissioners.

The meeting will likely adjourn late this afternoon.

At the American

E. K. Lincoln, the distinguished romantic screen actor will appear at the American Theater for a limited engagement beginning Thursday in the American Cinema Corporation's super production of "The Inner Voice."

This picture which is the first of a series of very elaborate dramatic subjects which is now in the course of production by the American Cinema Corporation was recently given its first showing at the Strand and Broadway Theaters, New York. The metropolitan critics consider it to be high among the really notable movie productions of the year.

The story which it tells is said to be a powerful dramatic recital of a man who gave unselfishly the best that was in him to the world and in return was overwhelmed with treachery, unfaithfulness and disgrace. With his soul embittered against his fellowmen, he struggled upward out of the depths, resolved to face the world again and demand restitution.

Mr. Lincoln in this picture is supported by a very large and capable company of well-known players which include Agnes Ayres, William Riley Hatch and Fuller Mellish. It will be remembered that Mr. Mellish was for many years one of the best Shakespearian actors on the American stage and was with E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe until their recent retirement.

Agnew Custom Mill Adds New Machines To Its Milling House

The Agnew Custom Mill located on North Constant and Ninth street has been making considerable improvement to their grist mill. These improvements consist of new grinders and chopper machines. With the addition of these improvements the mill is now in first class condition and is able to handle a large amount of business. They carry all kinds of grain and feed products.

The two newest machines installed are a New Wilson and a Wilson Wetterold chopper. They report a good business despite the existing conditions.

As a result of a billion-dollar anti-trust suit filed by the Mississippi State Revenue Agent against the insurance companies, all such companies ceased on March 1 to do business in that state.

The oil fraternity is deeply interested in the Carter-Nance-Laselle well at this time. The drilling is now at a depth which oil men believe to be in the neighborhood of a large producing sand. Their opinions are based on structures and surface conditions, all of which are very favorable for a strike.

It is probable that the sand will be drilled in the latter part of this week, if repairs for the drill-

Final Proofs for Annual Have Been Sent to Printers

The final proofs for the East Central Normal school annual were sent to the printers yesterday and the annual is now going to press. The annual, which is named the "Pesagi," meaning teacher, is in charge of the senior class and they have been working hard all the year to make it the best in history.

Their success is due to the fact that both students and teachers cooperated with them in making it so and because of the hearty cooperation of the business men, who make it possible for the annual to be published. It will consist of 202 pages this year, larger than it has ever been and every activity and feature of the Normal school year is included in the makeup. News of a better grade has been used and it is the opinion of those who are experienced in school annual work that it is the best ever put out by this school and that it would easily compare with larger school annuals. The editor-in-chief of the annual, Raymond Casky, is to be complimented on the good work he and his staff have accomplished this year.

the Normal and the pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Ada for the high school.

The Prayer meeting will be on Wednesday evening at 8:00. There were 36 at prayer meeting last Wednesday evening, and it was a good meeting. Who will come next Wednesday who was not there last Wednesday evening? Everybody is welcome to come to our services. We want you to come.

WILLIAMSON, May 14.—The battle in the mountains which has raged for two days between sympathizers and opponents of the United Mine Workers in the Williamson coal district, was resumed today at McCarr, Kentucky, and Linn, West Virginia, a little village near McCarr. Fighting also was reported at Spragg.

Patrons Will Vote on Ten-Mill School Levy Next Tuesday

At an election to be held at each of the ward schools of the city on Tuesday of next week the taxpayers will vote on the proposition of a ten mill levy of taxable property for the school maintenance fund next year.

While this is the limit and no more than ten mills could be authorized for the levy it is said that it is no more than was levied last year and very little of the fund raised last year remains.

The expense of maintaining the schools of the city will be greater the next school year than it has been this year, as an additional school building has been added which will necessitate the employment of nine additional teachers.

Those who mention the subject are of the opinion that the ten mill levy will carry, as the patrons of the schools in this city have ever been in favor of providing the best to be had for the school children.

At the McSwain
Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle has graduated from two-reel slap-stick classics to full-length comedy drama. He comes to the McSwain Theatre Next Tuesday. "Fatty" is fortunate in having a vehicle as packed with fun-making possibilities as Irvin S. Cobb's "The Life of the Party." Roscoe is just as mirthful as the story, and moreover, shows in the few serious scenes considerable skill as a straight dramatic actor.

The Colb story ran in the Saturday Evening Post recently and centers around a rotund young lawyer, Algernon Leary, who for the sake of pretty Milly Hollister undertook to prosecute the milk profiteers and thereby laid in a host of profits for himself. For Judge Voris, secretly in league with the milk folks, not only threw the case out of court, but "framed" Leary by having a fair siren "vamp" him. Leary escaped his wiles, only to encounter more difficulties when he donned his "children's party" dressed as a child of four and was stranded by a drunken cabby. But all turned out merrily in the end.

The Irving School Mother's Club Held Final Meet of Year

The Irving school Mother's club met for the last time this year at the school yesterday, with several of the members present.

All business coming before the club was disposed of and officers were elected for the next year.

Mrs. W. B. Frank was re-elected president; Mrs. J. P. Rogers was elected vice-president, Mrs. T. J. Morrow was re-elected secretary, and Mrs. Robert Johnson was elected treasurer.

During the past year the Mothers club has done much good work at the Irving school, having provided funds for several articles of playground equipment and ended the year with some money in the treasury to be used to start on next year.

The members expect to continue their efforts in behalf of the children of the school next year, by taking up where they left off at the close of this school term.

Another work credit will be made soon. It is only a short time until the scouts will leave for the camping grounds. Each scout must have 50 work credits, each costing 25 cents each. Those who have not yet earned their amount had better get busy. Mowing lawns and cutting weeds is a good way to earn money.
